WILSON ORDERS NAVY TO DROP WORD PRUDENT

RESOLUTION TO END WAR OPENS WARM DEBATE

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 11.—The Republican resolution to declare the war with Germany and Austria at an end was called up in the senate today by Senator Lodge, Massachusetts, who announced that he would keep the measure continuously before the senate until there was a vote.

Another bill proposing the repeal of all war laws was introduced today by Senator Jones of Washington. Opening the fight against the Republican plan to end the state of war by a joint resolution of Congress, Senator McCumber of North Dakota, declared in the senate that such a step would bring dishonor upon the nation as it involves desertion of America's associates in the war. McCumber advocated his resolution proposing restoration of commercial relations with Germany but said that he realized it would be useless to press this measure.

SINKING SHAFTS AT ARROWHEAD

C. L. Osterlund, president of the Arrowhead Syndicate, expects to complete his business in Tonopah today and leave for the camp either tomorrow or next day. His company is engaged sinking the main shaft which is down 180 feet to the 200-foot point where a station will be cut and cross-cutting "eggs." The hole was started at the junction of two ledges and Mr. Osterlund has no doubt that his company will add greatly to the resources of the camp when he gets lateral work fairly under way.

At the Arrowhead Extension Manager McVeigh is sinking below the 140-foot point on a vein that carries values of from $25 to $30 which is expected to improve as the shaft reaches the sulphide zone which appears to be close owing to stringers appearing. A crosscut will be sent out at 150 feet and the management expects to pick up the ledge at about 160 feet northeast from the shaft. H. D. Budiman, manager of the West End Consolidated and one of the directors of the Extension company, visited the property last week and expressed himself well satisfied with the progress.

CLARENCE F. BURTON MOVES TO BOSTON

The young ladies who have the Junior Prom. dance in their hands have changed the date from May 14th to May 28th at the suggestion of friends who wished to avoid a conflict with another social event in which the younger dancing set is deeply interested.

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 11.—President Wilson's hitherto unpublished war instructions to officers of the American fleet given in person on the quarter deck of the flagship Pennsylvania August 11, 1917, and bidding them to "throw traditions to the wind," strike the word "prudent" from their vocabularies and "do the thing that is audacious to the utmost point of risk and daring," was made public today by Secretary Daniels.

FINDS SKELETON NEAR TONOPAH

P. K. Wilcox, a prospector from Arizona, walked into the sheriff's office this morning with the information that he had found a human skeleton on the tall butte north of the Goldfield road overlooking the rifle range. The body must have been placed there ten or fifteen years ago as there was no trace of clothing and the remains were not enclosed in a box or other covering. Mr. Wilcox was browsing around that section of the district and ascended the hill, which is the highest point of the section with the idea of commanding a better view of the surrounding country. In moving around he discovered a pile of rocks which had been disturbed and further investigation led to the finding of the skeleton. Under Sheriff Slavin, accompanied by Drs. Richards and Turner, went this afternoon to determine if the remains were those of an Indian or Caucasian. The verdict was that the bones are those of an Indian as nothing will be done as it is the tribal custom for nomads of the desert to inter their dead on top of the highest hill near where the death occurs.

LAST BORDER TOWN MENACED

(By Associated Press) BROWNSVILLE, Tex., May 11.—Advance guard of the revolutionists approached Matamoros, the Mexican town opposite Brownsville, today exchanged a few shots with the Carranza outpost. The rebel move is believed to be preliminary to an attack in force. American military authorities have ordered a detachment of soldiers to the American end of the international bridge where machine guns were put in position pointing toward Matamoros. American officers offered to open the bridge in the event that Matamoros civilians seek safety in Brownsville.

OWNERS OF DESERT CLUB DISCHARGED BY COURT

The case of the owners of the Desert Club charged with having half a pint of liquor on their premises was dismissed, and their bondsman released, by Judge Grier this afternoon. The court took the ground that the state was not justified in postponing the hearing any longer as defendants had been summoned three times to trial. The prosecution wanted time to find out if the hearing could be had in the district court. The defendants were represented by M. B. Moore, of Reno, and Wm. McKnight, of Tonopah.
